Annual Harvest Fair Reaps Fun on Stuttgart Community

Halloween is just around the corner and the Robinson Barracks Youth Services is gearing up for its annual fall activities. Topping the list of fun is the Harvest Fair, which will take place Oct. 31 from 2 to 7 p.m. at the RB Youth Services. Community participants are in for some good old Halloween competitions with the pumpkin carving and costume contests. Prizes will be awarded for the different categories, to include funniest, scariest, most original, cutest and more. Or get involved in the cake walk, face painting and pinata time. There will also be plenty of other games and activities for the entire family. Harvest Fair goers can then warm themselves up at the bon fire from 7 p.m. to midnight. A perfect way to end an evening.

Another event is the traditional RB Haunted House. People are just dying to get into the scarey haunted house set for Oct. 30 and 31 from 6:30 p.m. to midnight and Nov. 1 from 6:30 to 10 p.m. Take a walk through the spooky halls. Brave souls, both young and old, will never forget this ghoulish experience. The cost is $3. For more info about these events call 0711-819-6016.

Musical Brings Out Foolishness

If you're looking for an entertaining evening, the upcoming Stuttgart Theater Center production is just the ticket. Be prepared to take a walk back through time and take a look at the world with tongue-in-cheek. Musician and lyricist Tom Lehrer wrote and performed songs at a time when music captured both society's paranoia and prejudices. These songs were written cleverly with a turn of a phrase to poke fun at such things as smut, pollution, relationships and the war.

In addition, these numbers gave Lehrer a tremendous following and are gathered together in an energetic night of irreverent but irresistible music. "Poisoning Pigeons in the Park" and "The Vatican Rag" are among the tunes that have made "Tomfoolery" a hit in both London and New York. The Kelley Theater performances will be Oct. 23 to 26, 30 to 31, Nov. 1 and 5 to 7. All shows begin at 7:30 p.m. For tickets or more info call the theater center at 0711-729-2796.
